Just starting your Herron Rail collection? We're known for our high quality footage of vintage American railroads but we also have some nice contemporary subjects. I'd like to offer a few suggestions by recommending a few of our all time favorites, based on comments from customers and sales over the years. I think if you try the following titles you'll be pleased:

Classic Pennsy Widescreen, Action packed and formatted for widescreen televisions.
Any of the Steam & Diesel titles by Don Krofta (B&O, NYC, NKP, PRR, CANADIAN STEAM).
Any of the Glory Machines titles. All have great vintage railroading with many very rare subjects.
Reflections of American Railroading. Dr. H R Blackburn's 16mm of many high speed chases
Pocahontas Glory Volumes 1-8. All have truly beautiful color scenes of N&W steam in the 1950's.
PILLARS OF SMOKE IN THE SKY N&W Blue Ridge Steam in 1957. Tremendous steam action! aboard the Y6's and lineside,
Reflections of the NYC. You'll get water scooping, a Hudson cab ride, pace 2 Niagaras, lots of great action systems
New England Glory Mt. Division. Simply great coverage of Maine Central steam in the late 40's through Crawford
MidAmerican Glory ICRR. Good steam action in this one plus diesels too. A personal favorite.
Narrow Gauge Glory Vol 1. If you like narrow gauge, get this one! Good stuff from the 1930's-60's.
NYC Indiana Division vols 1 & 2. The audio in these is authentic to many of the scenes. By Don Krofta, too!

All Diesel titles:

Rails West. Filmed on 16mm in the 1960's by Don Krofta, this all color , all diesel, show is spectacular!
Chicago 1970 presents most Windy City railroads just before and just after Amtrak came into existence.
Classic Florida Rails (Vols 1 & 2) highlight SCL, FEC and early Amtrak passenger trains in Florida.
